Royal Order-Rx-2026-R6-07-01-666

AFRICVILLE AT NOVA SCOTIA IN AMERICA

TO ALL TO WHOM these Presents shall come or whom the same may concern,

WHEREAS the King of Canada and the President of the United States of America have agreed to sever traditional relations; this dispute is henceforth designated as a local conflict between Scottish Clan Chiefs, in general, and between the House of Windsor and the House of MacLeod, in particular,

WHEREAS the Prince at Africville, Nova Scotia, accorded with the House of Hanover in the previous dispute of 1812 between diverse English, Scottish, and Irish men, has elected not to participate in a conflict between Christian Scottish clans in the 21st Century,

WHEREAS the First Province of Nova Scotia has been established as "a province of inheritance, royal privilege and reconciliation for the descendants of the founding men, women and royal beasts of burden arriving in America from Africa and Scotland before 1814,"

WHEREAS the founder of the British tribunus plebis in these lands, King James VI & I, admonished that rebellious "ministers have sought to establish a democracy in this land, and to become Tribune plebis themselves,"

WHEREAS the inherent privileges of the Virginia Franchise are reserved to the 1621 Royal Charter of Nova Scotia, including trade rights and privileges between North America and Africa,

On the occasion Founders' Day 2026, the Africans and Scots celebrate themselves as descendants of kings and queens who walk in the power and authority of the living God Almighty, and shall continue to renew and celebrate this heritage over the next 250 years,

We do, hereby, during pleasure, determine, order, and confirm that,

A. All sea routes between the United States of America and continental Africa are suspended, until further notice by the port authority of Africville, Nova Scotia

B. Authorised sea routes of Nova Scotia shall include:
   a. Africville, Nova Scotia
   b. First Province of Nova Scotia In America
      1) New Linlithgow at First Province of Nova Scotia In America
      2) New Badagry at First Province of Nova Scotia In America

C. Local Scottish coin shall prevail at king's standard and/or fiat at 25 years +2
   a. King Charles III, coin: ---
   b. Duke of Linlithgow, coin: TRUMP
   c. Duke of Badagry, coin LUMI

Certain royal privileges of Britain having been duly accorded to the President of the United States of America by His Majesty King George III, the Duke of Linlithgow may now proceed in preparing his people for trade with the Duke of Badagry over the next 250 years,

Done this first day of July, in the year of Our Lord two thousand and twenty-six,
